ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 21st February, 2007)

The following oral order of the Court was passed by H.L. Dattu, CJ.

This matter is posted for motion hearing. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits before us, that, the Labour Court had no jurisdiction to pass the impugned order. We enquired the learned counsel whether he has taken such a contention before the Labour Court, but learned counsel is not in a position to answer one way or the other. He only requests for grant of adjournment.

(2) This writ petition is filed against the impugned award passed somewhere in the year 1996. Eleven years have lapsed from the date of filing of the petition. No progress is made in the case.

(3) Keeping all these aspects in our mind, we think that the request made by the learned counsel for the petitioner is not justified. Therefore, we reject this petition for non-prosecution, as the petitioner has no interest in the matter. However, we reserve liberty to the petitioner's learned counsel to file appropriate application as and when he is fully ready with the matter for revival of the writ petition. Ordered accordingly.
